

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF OTOLARYNGOLOGY-
HEAD AND NECK SURGERY

2018 Committee Excellence Award

The Committee Excellence Award recognizes committees that contribute in ways that lead to the overall success of the AAO-HNS/F vision as the global leader in optimizing quality ear, nose, and throat patient care. These committees have a passion for our mission and for accomplishing the initiatives outlined in the strategic plan.

Committees are encouraged to apply using the following criteria:

- Committee accomplishments that have made a positive impact
- Leaders who have been effective at motivating and communicating with members in a positive way
- Committee members who have been actively engaged to accomplish annual goals
- Committees that have a well-articulated work plan that aligns and supports the AAO-HNS/F Strategic Plan and is communicated effectively
- Leaders who have encouraged committee members to volunteer their time, energy, and resources

The award is based on activities from October 1, 2017, through July 31, 2018, and will be recognized at the AAO-HNSF 2018 Annual Meeting & OTO Experience in Atlanta, Georgia.

2018 Committee Excellence Award Application

Committee Name: _____

Nominated By: _____

Relationship to Committee: _____

Email: _____

Please take as much space as needed to finish your response to all the questions.

1. How has this committee's work contributed to the core success of the AAO-HNS mission (site specific examples)?

2. In what specific ways has this committee provided education programs and opportunities to members and others who are affiliated with the Academy? (provide concrete examples).

3. Has the committee been successful in communicating and involving its members in relevant initiatives throughout the year? (provide examples).

Applications must be received no later than Tuesday, August 7, 2018, via email to committees@entnet.org.

Questions? Email: committees@entnet.org