Meet Our New 2019 Millennium Society Lifetime Donors

Cecelia E. Schmalbach, MD

Philadelphia, PA

When asked what do you hope to achieve through your donation and philanthropic support of the AAO-HNS foundation, Dr. Schmalbach replied "It is my hope that my donation will help the continued advancement for our field of otolaryngology-HNS such that we're always providing the highest level care to patients. I'm also excited about potential educational and research endeavors which can result from my donation. It is important to give back to the specialty because as otolaryngologists, we know what is best for our patients and our specialty; giving back to the foundation and our specialty ensures that we have thought leaders in every aspect of otolaryngology - from advocacy, quality development, and cutting edge research to education and mentorship of our future otolaryngology leaders."

Eric P. Wilkinson, MD

Los Angeles, CA

When asked what inspired him to become a Millennium Society Lifetime Donor at this time, Dr. Wilkinson said "when examining what would be my total support to the AAO-HNS foundation over my lifetime, it made sense to become a Lifetime Donor now to provide immediate support to the foundation on the 'front end.' Financial support is necessary for any foundation to thrive and giving back to the AAO-HNS foundation will assist with programs. Additionally, I want to provide an example to younger physicians about supporting the AAO-HNS foundation, as was demonstrated to me by faculty and mentors since the beginning of my career."

The AAO-HNS foundation sincerely thanks our major donors for creating a tradition of giving back to the specialty and in supporting the foundation's mission-centric programs and initiatives, today and tomorrow.
