

WOMEN IN OTOLARYNGOLOGY (WIO) 2021

EXEMPLARY SENIOR TRAINEE AWARD

NOMINATION INFORMATION

The Section for Women in Otolaryngology (WIO) of the American Academy of Otolaryngology - Head and Neck Surgery (AAO-HNS) is pleased to call for nominations for the 2021 Exemplary Senior Trainee Award. This annual award recognizes an outstanding female senior resident or fellow in an Otolaryngology - Head and Neck Surgery training program.

Nominees are being sought from all otolaryngology training programs, and criteria for eligibility are below.

- Nominee must demonstrate excellence in at least one of the following areas:
 - Leadership
 - Research
 - Education
 - Mentoring
- Nominee must be a member in good standing with the AAO-HNS
- Nominee must be in good standing in an accredited otolaryngology residency or fellowship program as of March 2021
- Nominee must be a female otolaryngology trainee in her penultimate or final year of residency, or in fellowship
- The trainee may be recommended by junior residents and/or medical students; however, the final nomination should be submitted by the program director
- Please attach:
 - Nomination Form
 - The Nominee's Curriculum Vitae (CV) or resume
 - Letter of recommendation from program director
 - Optional additional information is encouraged—further documentation of excellence in teaching, research, or leadership may be furnished in the form of evaluations completed by junior residents, medical students, attending physicians, and/or research mentors.

Selection Process & Award Presentation

The WIO Program & Awards Committee will evaluate the nominations and select an honoree. The honoree will be acknowledged during the Section for Women in Otolaryngology General Assembly as part of the 2021 AAO-HNS Annual Meeting & OTO Experience in October. The Academy will also recognize the honoree on its website, and in other media where awardees are featured.

Nominations must be submitted no later than Friday, May 14, 2021 as PDF attachments via email to: wio@entnet.org, with the subject line [Nominee Last Name] Trainee Award.
