
AAO-HNSF Volunteer Faculty Application for International and Joint Meetings

Since its inception, the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery Foundation has cultivated ties to national otolaryngology societies and similar organizations around the world. The AAO-HNSF assigns great importance to these relationships, which collectively advance the otolaryngology specialty in ways no one society can achieve alone.

One important means of building global relationships is through Joint Meetings, i.e., conferences or meetings jointly organized or endorsed by the AAO-HNSF and a counterpart otolaryngology entity.

Occasionally we receive requests for faculty for these meetings. Please complete the application below and email it to international@entnet.org if you would be interested in presenting. Please note that you will be expected to cover all travel-related expenses on your own.
