

SRF DELEGATE APPLICATION

Submission Deadline: Monday, June 27, 2022

The Section for Residents and Fellows-in-Training (SRF) is seeking candidates for available appointed officer positions. The SRF Governing Council makes appointments for the positions below to serve as the AAO-HNS SRF delegates to related organizations.

Appointed delegates are required to attend the related meeting(s) and submit written reports to the SRF Governing Council within 30 days of the meeting attended. For more information, please contact srf@entnet.org.

Appointed delegates are not funded to attend the AAO-HNS/F Leadership Forum & BOG Spring Meeting or the AAO-HNSF Annual Meeting & OTO Experience. Delegates may apply for a Resident Leadership Grant to help defray the cost of travel to attend both meetings.

APPOINTED OFFICERS - DELEGATE POSITIONS

American Board of Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgery (ABOHNS) Liaison: Serves as the Section's liaison to the ABOHNS. Communicates the Section's concerns to ABOHNS and reports to the Section on ABOHNS's activities. The liaison must form a communication relationship with the Executive Director of the ABOHNS. Term is one year. Travel expenses are not covered.

American College of Surgeons - Resident and Associate Society (RAS-ACS) Delegate: The delegate will serve as contact person for all relevant information exchanged between the RAS-ACS and the SRF. This delegate will attend the American College of Surgeons fall Clinical Congress, spring Leadership and Advocacy meeting, and phone conferences. The delegate is required to update the SRF regarding actions taken by the American College of Surgeons. An alternate delegate will be selected if the delegate is unable to attend meetings. Term is one year. SRF-related travel expenses are covered. Recommended that delegate be an ACS member.

American Medical Association (AMA) Resident and Fellow Section (RFS) Delegate: Attends both the AMA Resident and Fellow Section Annual Meeting in June and the interim meeting in November and serves as a liaison between the Section and the AMA-RFS. Minutes from both AMA meetings must be done within 30 days of attending these meetings. Important action items must be brought to the Academy via the Section's Governing Council. In addition, this delegate will be asked to attend the medical student outreach program to promote otolaryngology to potential medical students during the AMA's June meeting. An alternate delegate will be selected if the delegate is unable to attend meetings. Term is one year. SRF-related travel expenses are covered. Delegate must be an AMA member.

Society of University Otolaryngologists (SUO) Delegate: This delegate attends the Annual Meeting of the Society of University Otolaryngologists usually in October/November, and will update the Section regarding actions and initiatives taken by the SUO. Delegates who apply for this position must have a strong interest in academic medicine. An alternate delegate will be selected if the delegate is unable to attend meetings. Term is one year. SRF-related travel expenses are covered.

International Delegate: This delegate will coordinate global activities and act as liaison with other residency and training programs outside the U.S. The delegate will focus on strengthening collaborations with current international members and help recruit new international members.

ENT PAC Delegate: This delegate will attend events held by ENT PAC or its Board of Advisors, will update the SRF regarding actions and initiatives taken by ENT PAC, and will promote increased participation in ENT PAC activities.
